Approach

Prelude

One Man Remembers

Call to Worship

One: Remembering the generations who have gone before us,

All: We have come to this place of peace to worship you.

One: Remembering all who have suffered and are in fear even today because of violence,

All: We have come to this service of peace to worship you.

* Hymn VU #615 – “When Quiet Peace is Shattered”

Prayer of Approach and Confession

God of peace, you have created a magical world for us to enjoy. There is beauty all around us. Our lives are filled with relationships of love and friendship. We should be grateful. Still we want more and our wanting leads to conflict and jealousy and greed. We have turned this sacred place into a vessel for war and hate. Generations before us warned us: “Never again” and we thought we knew better. Forgive us for looking the other way; for turning the page; for switching the page in an effort to ignore the truth of our times. Fill your whole creation with understanding and compassion. Embrace us with your Spirit of peace and justice, and never let go of us. We pray to the one who never wavered, Jesus Christ. AMEN

* Response (VU #679 vs. 1, 3, 6)

Let there be light, let there be understanding,
Let all the nations gather, let them be face to face;
Perish the sword, perish the angry judgement;
Perish the bombs and hunger, perish the fight for gain;
Let there be light, open our hearts to wonder,
Perish the way of terror, hallow the world God made.
